Police Pass are running a FREE 1 day course to assist with your revision for the NPPF Step 2 (formerly OSPRE Part 1) examination.

Courses are delivered by a Superintendent and Chief Inspector who have passed the examination themselves in the top 1% nationally, as well as a solicitor and university law lecturer.

The course will involve a series of sessions covering key topics within the examination syllabus which will be delivered via a variety of blended learning techniques. We will show you how easy it is to learn complex topics if you utilise the most effective revision techniques.

You will also receive guidance on examination techniques that we used ourselves to pass the examination.

To register for the course simply log onto www.policepass.co.uk and fill in your personal details on the free 1 day course registration page. You will then receive an automated e-mail confirming your place on the course.

Prior to attending the course please also access via the same webpage the Police Pass FREE:

- Top 10 study tips;
- Revision timetable based on past paper assessment trends;
- Past paper statistical analysis;
- Sample revision crammer textbook chapter; and
- Sample blended e-learning module.

The FREE content will enable you to:

- Get organised;
- Schedule and prioritise their study plan; and

Police Pass

- Kick start their studies by working their way through the study materials for a high reward module – Entry Search & Seizure
