

PROPERTY SALE OR PURCHASE – CAN WE STILL INSTRUCT SOLICITORS IN THE LOCKDOWN?

Here at Ridley & Hall incorporating Bashforth Young Solicitor this is a question that we are being frequently asked and the answer in short is yes.

If you were thinking of purchasing a property or selling your property pre lockdown there is no reason why you cannot start this process with solicitors whilst in lockdown.

A property transaction consists of many stages and standard form filling. Instruct us to complete all the standard work NOW so that you are in a strong position post lockdown. Some instructions such as sales on probate matters and investment purchases can even be completed in the lockdown if the property is empty.

Whatever your circumstances our home workers are here to talk you through these difficult times we are still very much business as usual at Ridley & Hall incorporating Bashforth Young Solicitor.
